Memorandum on the Admission of The United Micronations Multi-Oceanic Archipelago (UMMOA) to the OEAS

Taking into consideration:

1. The environmental importance and the disputed political status of Banc du Geyser, Indian Ocean Island, which is claimed by France, Madagascar, the Comoros, and the UMMOA;
2. That the UMMOA is dedicated to preserving and protecting Banc du Geyser from economic and military exploitation;
3. That the UMMOA is in support of the OEAS and the declaration of Washington;

UMMOA is hereby admitted as an Associate Member of the OEAS under the following terms and conditions:

- A. UMMOA will have the right to attend annual meetings of the OEAS Assembly;
- B. UMMOA is designated a Consultative Agency to the OEAS Secretariat on the matter of the Oceanic Biome;
- C. UMMOA's status as a voting member of the OEAS representing the Indian Ocean Islands is taken under further consideration.

Yours in solidarity,

Ebenezer Derek Mbongo Akwanga, Jr.,
Secretary General OEAS
National Chairman Southern Cameroons Youth League
